A year following the Award-winning Debut of its First Original Travel Experience Programming, Carnival Corporation & plc, the World's Largest Leisure Travel Company, announced on August 28, at the American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA) Global Convention that its Hit Series have been extended for a Second Season on ABC stations and NBC. Season two of "The Voyager with Josh Garcia" Premieres on NBC Stations beginning Saturday, September 30.

Three of Carnival Corporation's Original Series (which debuted in fall 2016 and are distributed by Litton Entertainment) recently were honored with 10 Telly Awards, which recognize the Best in TV and Cable, Digital and Streaming, and Non-broadcast Productions. Back for a Second Season on ABC Stations is "Ocean Treks with Jeff Corwin." It Broadcasts Nationally as part of the Daytime Emmy-winning block "Weekend Adventure," a Three-hour Programming Block airing Saturday Mornings on 98 % of the Country's ABC Affiliate Channels. In Season Two, Corwin takes Audiences to Iceland, Belize and Peru, and even shares his Family with Viewers as they visit Japan. It's also in Japan that Corwin connects with the one Creature that's alluded him for more than 20 years “" the Giant Japanese Salamander.

"The Voyager with Josh Garcia" returns to NBC for a Second Year as part of the Network's Nationally Broadcasted "The More You Know" Programming Block, continuing to provide Inspiring Stories on NBC Stations throughout the Country. This Season, Viewers will Travel with Garcia as he treks along Alaska's Majestic Mendenhall Glacier, samples Traditional Thai Food in Bangkok, and ventures to the Mountains of Taiwan to learn how Traditional Tea is farmed and prepared.
